Thank you for your assistance with this matter.

Scott Foster

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

EDWARD ROSSI, on behalf of himself and) all others similarly situated,) Plaintiffs,) vs.)
THE PROCTOR & GAMBLE COMPANY,) Defendant.

Case No.: 11-7238 (JLL)

MOTION FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AND MOTION TO COMPEL

NOW COMES Claimant Scott Foster (“Foster”), pro se, and hereby moves the Court to compel Defendant The Proctor & Gamble Company (“P&G”) to properly issue refunds in this matter; and to compel Citibank N.A., acting as agent for P&G in this matter, to rescind an adhesion contract issued to claimants in this matter. This Motion is made pursuant to this Court’s previous Order (ECF 81 at ¶ 20).

FACTS

1. Foster is a Clamant in this matter, as that term is defined by the Settlement Agreement (Settlement Agreement at ¶ 22 D).
2. As a Claimant in this matter, Foster is entitled to a refund from P&G in the amount of $4.00.

3. On or about April 15, 2014, Foster received a letter from Citibank N.A. (“Citibank”) (the “Citibank Letter”) (Exhibit A).
4. The Citibank Letter indicated Citibank was administering payment of claims in this matter.
5. The Citibank Letter included a Citibank Prepaid Debit Card (the “Card”), purportedly with a value of $4.00 and representing payment of the refund P&G issued to Foster as Claimant in this matter.
6. The Citibank Letter contained additional enclosures, including an adhesion contract (the “Contract”) (Exhibit B).
7. On information and belief, similar mailings were made to all claimants in this matter.
8. As a condition of accepting and using the Card, which is required and necessary to receive the $4.00 P&G refund, claimants in this matter are required to accept the terms of the Contract.
9. The Contract contains no option for claimants to opt out of the Contract.
10. The Contract contains a binding Arbitration Provision.
11. The Contract contains no option for claimants to opt out of the Arbitration Provision.
12. The Arbitration Provision requires claimants to waive their rights to a jury trial and the ability to litigate disputes, among other provisions for any and all claims.
13. The Arbitration Provision indicates that all claims, related to any party and/or connected to the Card or Citibank in any way, are subject to the Arbitration Provision (Contract at ‘Whose claims are subject to arbitration?’).

14. The Arbitration Provision indicates that all claims, even those claims that existed prior to the issuance of the Card, are subject to arbitration (Contract at ‘What time frame applies to claims subject to arbitration?’).
15. The Arbitration Provision provides two choices for an arbitration forum: The American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) and the National Arbitration Forum (“NAF”) (Contract at ‘How Arbitration Works’).
16. The Contract is dated: Revised 08/2013.
17. In 2009, the NAF agreed to cease administering consumer-related disputes nationwide after reaching an agreement in an action brought against it by the Minnesota Attorney General (Exhibit C).
18. NAF’s nationwide ban on consumer disputes remains in effect as evidenced by a statement on the NAF website (Exhibit D) (retrieved from adrforum.com on April 20, 2014).
19. On information and belief, Citibank is aware that NAF is no longer administering consumer-related disputes, and has been aware of that status since 2009.
20. By including NAF in the Contract, Citibank has forced all claimants in this matter to forever settle past, present and future disputes through the AAA.
21. The Arbitration Provision contains an arbitration appeal clause. (Contract at ‘When is an arbitration award final?’).
22. On information and belief, AAA refuses to honor Citibank consumer arbitration appeals as provided in the Contract.
23. On information and belief, Citibank is aware of AAA’s refusal to handle consumer arbitration appeals pursuant to the Contract’s language.

24. On information and belief, by including AAA in the Contract, Citibank has attempted to force all claimants in this matter to forever settle all consumer disputes through AAA, a forum Citibank knows will not fully administer said consumer disputes pursuant to the contract's terms.
25. On information and belief, P&G had knowledge of the Citibank Contract and Arbitration Provision, and had that knowledge prior to choosing Citibank to administer payments to claimants in this matter.
26. The Contract indicates Citibank may change the Contract terms at any time.
27. The Contract indicates Citibank may assign their rights or obligations under the contract at any time, but that claimants may not do so.
28. The Contract contains a Privacy Policy (Contract at ‘Privacy’).
29. The Privacy Policy indicates Citibank may share claimants’ personal information “on our [Citibank] behalf or as required by law.”
30. The ambiguity of the Privacy Policy leaves Citibank open to share a claimants’ personal information with anyone Citibank chooses, and provides claimants with no opportunity to opt out, object or be made aware of the sharing of that personal information.
31. Foster does not agree to the terms of the Contract, Arbitration Provision or Privacy Policy.
32. Foster has not signed, activated or otherwise used the Card.
33. The Claim Form and Settlement Agreement submitted to this Court in this matter make no mention of an adhesion contract, arbitration provision or privacy policy.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Foster moves the Court to:

- a. Issue an injunction preventing The Proctor & Gamble Company from enforcing any portion of the Contract, including the Arbitration Provision;
- b. issue an injunction preventing Citibank N.A. from enforcing any portion of the Contract, including the Arbitration Provision;
- c. order The Proctor & Gamble Company to issue Foster an unrestricted claim settlement payment in the amount of $4.00;
- d. order that Citibank and The Proctor and Gamble Company recall all debit cards issued to claimants in this matter;
- e. order that Citibank and The Proctor and Gamble Company issue notices to all claimants indicating that the Contract, Arbitration Provision and Privacy Policy are void and unenforceable;
- f. grant any other relief that the Court deems appropriate.

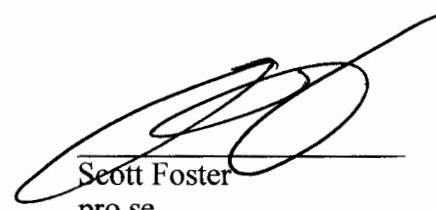

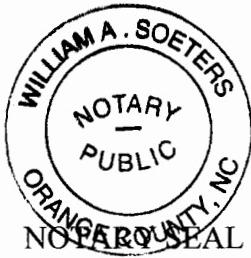

Respectfully submitted this 21st day of April, 2014,

Who pays? Whoever files the arbitration pays the initial arbitration firm's fee(s). If we file, we pay, if you file, you pay unless you get a fee waiver under applicable rules of the arbitration firm. If you have paid the initial arbitration firm's fee(s) and you prevail, we will reimburse you for such fees. If there is a hearing, we will pay any fees of the arbitrator and arbitration firm for the first day of that hearing. All other fees will be allocated as provided by the rules of the arbitration firm and applicable law. However, we will advance or reimburse your fees if the arbitration firm or arbitrator determines there is a good reason for requiring us to do so, or if you ask us and we determine there is good reason for doing so. Unless otherwise provided by applicable law, each party will bear the expense of that party's attorneys, experts, and witnesses, and other expenses, regardless of which party prevails, but a party may recover any or all expenses from another party if the arbitrator applying applicable law, so determines.

Who can be a party? Claims must be brought in the name of an individual person or entity and must proceed on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis. The arbitrator will not award relief for or against anyone who is not a party. If you or we require arbitration of a Claim, neither you, we, nor any other person may pursue the Claim in arbitration as a class action, private attorney general action or other representative action, nor may such Claim be pursued on your or our behalf in any litigation in any court. Claims, including assigned Claims, of two or more persons may not be joined or consolidated in the same arbitration. However, secondary cardholders and authorized users on a single Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card and/or related Citi PREPAID SERVICES Cards, or corporate affiliates are here considered as one person.

When is an arbitration award final? The arbitrator's award is final and binding on the parties unless a party appeals it in writing to the arbitration firm within fifteen days of notice of the award. The appeal must request a new arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators designated by the same arbitration firm. The panel will consider all factual and legal issues anew, follow the same rules that apply to a proceeding using a single arbitrator, and make decisions based on the vote of the majority. Costs will be allocated in the same way they are allocated for arbitration before a single arbitrator. An award by a panel is final and binding on the parties after fifteen days has passed. A final and binding award is subject to judicial review and enforcement as provided by the FAA or other applicable law.

Survival and Severability of Terms

This arbitration provision shall survive: (i) termination or changes in the Agreement, the Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card, or the relationship between you and us concerning the Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card; (ii) the bankruptcy of any party; and (iii) any transfer, sale or assignment of your Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card, or this Agreement, to any other person or entity. If any portion of this arbitration provision is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the entire provision is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the entire arbitration provision shall not remain in force. No portion of this arbitration provision may be amended, severed or waived absent a written agreement between you and us.

Broadest interpretation. Any questions about whether Claims are subject to arbitration shall be resolved by interpreting this arbitration provision in the broadest way the law will allow it to be enforced. This arbitration provision is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (the "FAA").

What about Claims filed in Small Claims Court? Claims filed in a small claims court are not subject to arbitration, so long as the matter remains in such court and advances only an individual (non-class, non-representative) Claim.

How Arbitration Works

How does a party initiate arbitration? The party filing arbitration must choose one of the following two arbitration firms and follow its rules and procedures for initiating and pursuing arbitration: American Arbitration Association or National Arbitration Forum. Any arbitration hearing that you attend will be held at a place chosen by the arbitration firm in the same city as the U.S. District Court closest to your then current address on file with us, or at some other place to which you and we agree in writing. You may obtain copies of the current rules of each of the arbitration firms and forms and instructions for initiating arbitration by contacting them as follows:

American Arbitration Association
1633 Broadway, Floor 10
New York, NY 10019
Web site: www.adr.org

National Arbitration Forum
P.O. Box 50191
Minneapolis, MN 55405-0191
Web site:
www.arbitration-forum.com

At any time you or we may ask an appropriate court to compel arbitration of Claims, or to stay the litigation of Claims pending arbitration, even if such Claims are part of a lawsuit, unless a trial has begun or a final judgment has been entered. Even if a party fails to exercise these rights at any particular time, or in connection with any particular Claims, that party can still require arbitration at a later time or in connection with any other Claims.

What procedures and law are applicable in arbitration? A single neutral arbitrator will resolve Claims. The arbitrator will be either a lawyer with at least ten years experience or a retired or former judge, selected in accordance with the rules of the arbitration firm. The arbitration will follow procedures and rules of the arbitration firm in effect on the date the arbitration is filed unless those procedures and rules are inconsistent with this Agreement, in which case this Agreement will prevail. Those procedures and rules may limit the discovery available to you or us. The arbitrator will take reasonable steps to protect customer information and other confidential information if required to do so by you or us. The arbitrator will apply applicable substantive law consistent with the FAA and applicable statutes of limitations, will honor claims of privilege recognized at law, and will have the power to award to a party any damages or other relief provided for under applicable law. You or we may choose to have a hearing and be represented by counsel. The arbitrator will make any award in writing and, if requested by you or us, will provide a brief statement of the reasons for their award. An award in arbitration shall determine the rights and obligations between the named parties only, and pay them to you by issuing a check. We may terminate this Agreement immediately, without prior notice, if you commit any fraudulent, illegal or impermissible acts or provide false information to us, in which event we may withhold from any payment to you any amount we reasonably believe you owe as a result of any wrongful conduct in connection with your Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card or Our Site. You acknowledge and agree that we may set off the amount of any outstanding fees or payments due to us prior to issuing any authorized refunds.

ARBITRATION: PLEASE READ THIS PROVISION OF THE AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. IT PROVIDES THAT ANY DISPUTE MAY BE RESOLVED BY BINDING ARBITRATION. ARBITRATION REPLACES THE RIGHT TO GO TO COURT, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO A JURY AND THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS ACTION OR SIMILAR PROCEEDING. IN ARBITRATION, A DISPUTE IS RESOLVED BY AN ARBITRATOR INSTEAD OF A JUDGE OR JURY. ARBITRATION PROCEDURES ARE SIMPLER AND MORE LIMITED THAN COURT PROCEDURES. IF YOU DO NOT WISH TO BE BOUND BY THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT, YOU MAY NOT USE THE Citi PREPAID SERVICES CARD AND YOU MUST CONTACT US IMMEDIATELY TO CANCEL YOUR Citi PREPAID SERVICES CARD.

Agreement to Arbitrate: Either you or we may, without the other's consent, elect mandatory, binding arbitration for any claim, dispute, or controversy between you and us (called "Claims").

Claims Covered

What Claims are subject to arbitration? All Claims arising out of and relating to your Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card, a prior related Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card or our relationship are subject to arbitration, including without limitation Claims regarding the application, enforceability, or interpretation of this Agreement. All Claims are subject to arbitration, no matter what legal theory they are based on or what remedy (damages, or injunctive or declaratory relief) they seek. This includes Claims based on contract, tort (including intentional tort), fraud, agency, your or our negligence, statutory or regulatory provisions, or any other sources of law; Claims made as counterclaims, cross-claims, third-party claims, interpleaders or otherwise; and Claims made independently or with other claims. A party who initiates a proceeding in court may elect arbitration with respect to any Claim advanced in that proceeding by any other party. Claims and remedies sought as part of a class action, private attorney general or other representative action are subject to arbitration on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis, and the arbitrator may award relief only on an individual (non-class, non-representative) basis.

Whose Claims are subject to arbitration? Not only ours and yours, but also Claims made by or against anyone connected with us or you or claiming through us or you, such as a secondary cardholder or authorized user of your Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card, an employee, agent, representative, affiliated company, predecessor or successor, heir, assignee, or trustee in bankruptcy.

What time frame applies to claims subject to arbitration? Claims arising in the past, present, or future, including Claims arising before the opening of your Citi PREPAID SERVICES Card, are subject to arbitration.

Case Type: Other Civil
(Consumer Protection)

State of Minnesota by its Attorney General,
Lori Swanson,

Court File No. 27-CV-09-18550

Judge John L. Holahan

Plaintiff,

vs.

CONSENT JUDGMENT

National Arbitration Forum, Inc.,
National Arbitration Forum, LLC, and Dispute Management Services, LLC, d/b/a Forthright,

Defendants.

WHEREAS, Plaintiff State of Minnesota, by and through its Attorney General, Lori Swanson ("State"), filed a Complaint in this matter on July 14, 2009 ("Complaint") against National Arbitration Forum, Inc., National Arbitration Forum, LLC, and Dispute Management Services, LLC, d/b/a Forthright (hereinafter, collectively, the "NAF Entities") (the State, and the NAF entities are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Parties");

WHEREAS, this Consent Judgment shall not be construed as an admission of wrongdoing or liability by the NAF Entities;

NOW, THEREFORE, in the interest of resolving this action, the State and the NAF Entities hereby stipulate and consent to entry of this Consent Judgment, as set forth below:

1. The purpose of this Consent Judgment is to require the complete divestiture by the NAF Entities of any business related to the arbitration of consumer disputes.

2. The term "Consumer Arbitration" means any arbitration involving a dispute between a business entity and a private individual which relates to goods, services, or property of any kind allegedly provided by any business entity to the individual, or payment for such goods, services, or property. The term includes any claim by a third party debt buyer against a private individual. It does not include, however, the arbitration of internet domain name disputes on behalf of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), the processing of personal injury protection (PIP) disputes, the processing of shipping or storage disputes under 49 CFR § 375.211, or arbitrations where a NAF Entity is appointed and supervised by a government entity.

3. On or after July 24, 2009, no NAF Entity shall:
 - a. Accept any fee for processing any new Consumer Arbitration.
 - b. Administer or process any new Consumer Arbitration.
 - c. In any manner participate in any new Consumer Arbitration.
 - d. Attempt to influence the outcome of any arbitration proceeding currently pending before it.

4. The NAF Entities shall not engage in any deceptive practices, or make any false or misleading statements, in violation of Minn. Stat. §§ 325F.69, subd. 1; 325D.44, subd. 1; and 325F.67.

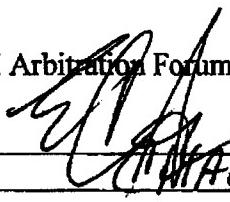

5. The NAF Entities shall pay investigative costs to the State of Minnesota within ten days of the date this Consent Judgment is signed. Notwithstanding this payment, the NAF Entities shall also pay the State of Minnesota an amount equal to any amount paid to the City of San Francisco over the next six months, in excess of the City's actual investigative expenses and attorneys' fees.

6. The Parties have read this Consent Judgment and voluntarily agree to its entry.
7. In consideration of the stipulated relief, the sufficiency of which is acknowledged, the Office of the Attorney General, by execution of this Consent Judgment, hereby fully and completely releases the NAF Entities, including all of their past and present agents, employees, officers, directors, subsidiaries, shareholders, and affiliates, of any and all claims of the Attorney General connected with or arising out of the allegations in the State's Complaint in the above-captioned action, up to and including the date of this Consent Judgment.
8. Promptly after receiving notice that the Court executes this Consent Judgment, the State shall voluntarily dismiss the above-captioned action pursuant to Minnesota Rule of Civil Procedure 41.01(a).
9. The Parties shall cooperate to implement and facilitate this Consent Judgment, including the exchange of information reasonably necessary for that purpose or to confirm the NAF Entities' compliance with this Consent Judgment.
10. Any failure by any Party to this Consent Judgment to insist on performance by any other Party of any provision of this Consent Judgment shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions included herein.
11. The Parties agree to bear their own costs and fees in this matter.
12. Each Party participated in the drafting of this Consent Judgment, and each agrees that the Consent Judgment's terms may not be construed against or in favor of any Party by virtue of draftsmanship. Each signatory further agrees they have authority to enter into this Consent Judgment.

13. This Consent Judgment, including any issues relating to interpretation or enforcement, shall be governed by the laws of Minnesota. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter to enforce the terms of this Consent Judgment.

Edward Anderson
Chairman of the Board
National Arbitration Forum, Inc.

Re: Consent Judgment Between the State of Minnesota, by its Attorney General, Lori Swanson, and the National Arbitration Forum, Inc., National Arbitration Forum, LLC, and Dispute Management Services, LLC d/b/a Forthright dated July 17, 2009

If, after two years (or one year, if special master Short concludes that such early modification will be in the interests of justice), a signatory to the Consent Judgment believes that consumers will not be harmed by a modification of this Consent Judgment, a signatory may petition former federal Magistrate Judge Brian Short for a determination that consumers will not be harmed as a result of the modification. If Mr. Short makes such a determination, this consent judgment may be modified. In no event shall this Consent Judgment be modified to allow a signatory to administer or process, or in any manner participate in the administration or processing of, arbitrations involving an individual consumer and business entity where the underlying dispute involves consumer debt (including debt bought or acquired by third parties), credit cards, consumer loans, telecommunications services, utilities, health care services, or consumer leases.
